New version of the website for transfers

New design for transfer search&book is introduced in Release 8.1.

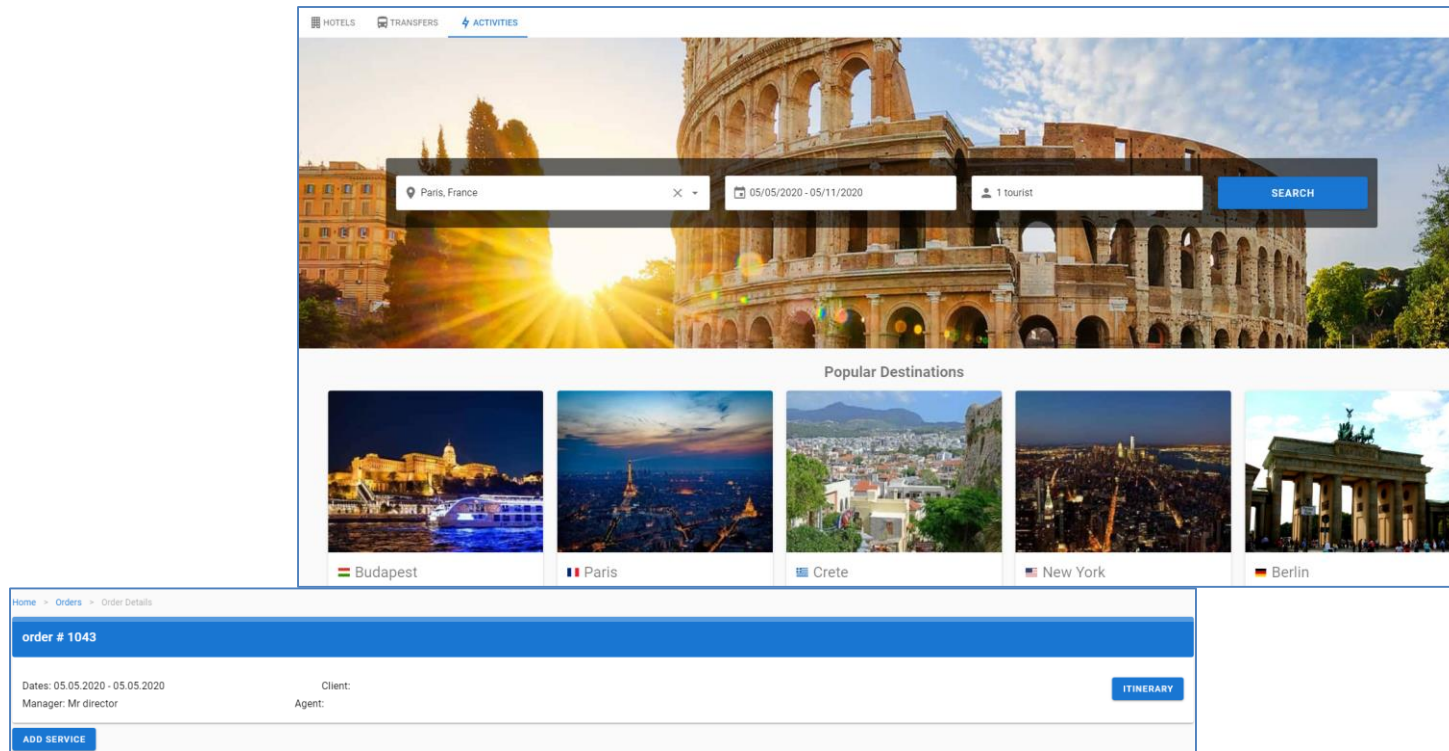

The screenshot displays the new website interface for transfers, organized into several key sections:

- Header: Navigation tabs for HOTELS, TRANSFERS, and ACTIVITIES.
- Search Bar: A prominent search bar with fields for departure location, arrival location, date (05.05.2020), and number of tourists (1 tourist), accompanied by a SEARCH button.
- Popular Destinations: A row of five destination cards featuring images and names: Budapest, Paris, Crete, New York, and Berlin.
- Search Results: A section titled "2 offers found" showing two options: "Bus to London" (from $30.00) and "Transfer to LONDON" (from $45.00).
- Transfer Details: A detailed view for "Transfer to LONDON" showing a "Minivan" option with a price of $150.00. It includes a description of professional drivers and a gallery of vehicle images.
- Order Details: A section for "order # 1042" showing dates (05.05.2020 - 05.05.2020), client information (Mr weedkfj ewifkm), and agent information (Mr Maria Vataleva). It also includes a "Confirmed" status and a "Private test transfer (INDIVIDUAL)" label.
- Order Info: A section providing specific details: Pick Up (12:00 05.05.2020), Drop Off (05.05.2020), flight number (AA1111), and pickup/drop-off locations (from (Flight number: AA1111) to (Test Hotel)).

Note: in order to connect a new version of website for transfers, please contact GP technical support or your account manager

New design for activities search&book is introduced in Release 8.1.

The screenshot displays the 'ACTIVITIES' section of a website. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'HOTELS', 'TRANSFERS', and 'ACTIVITIES'. Below these is a large hero image of the Colosseum in Rome. Overlaid on this image is a search bar with the following fields: a location dropdown set to 'Paris, France', a date range '05/05/2020 - 05/11/2020', a person icon with '1 tourist', and a blue 'SEARCH' button. Below the hero image, a section titled 'Popular Destinations' features five destination cards: Budapest (night view of the Danube), Paris (Eiffel Tower at night), Crete (coastal town), New York (city skyline), and Berlin (Brandenburg Gate). At the bottom, a blue sidebar contains the text 'order # 1043', dates '05.05.2020 - 05.05.2020', manager 'Mr director', and agent fields. It also includes an 'ADD SERVICE' button and an 'ITINERARY' button.

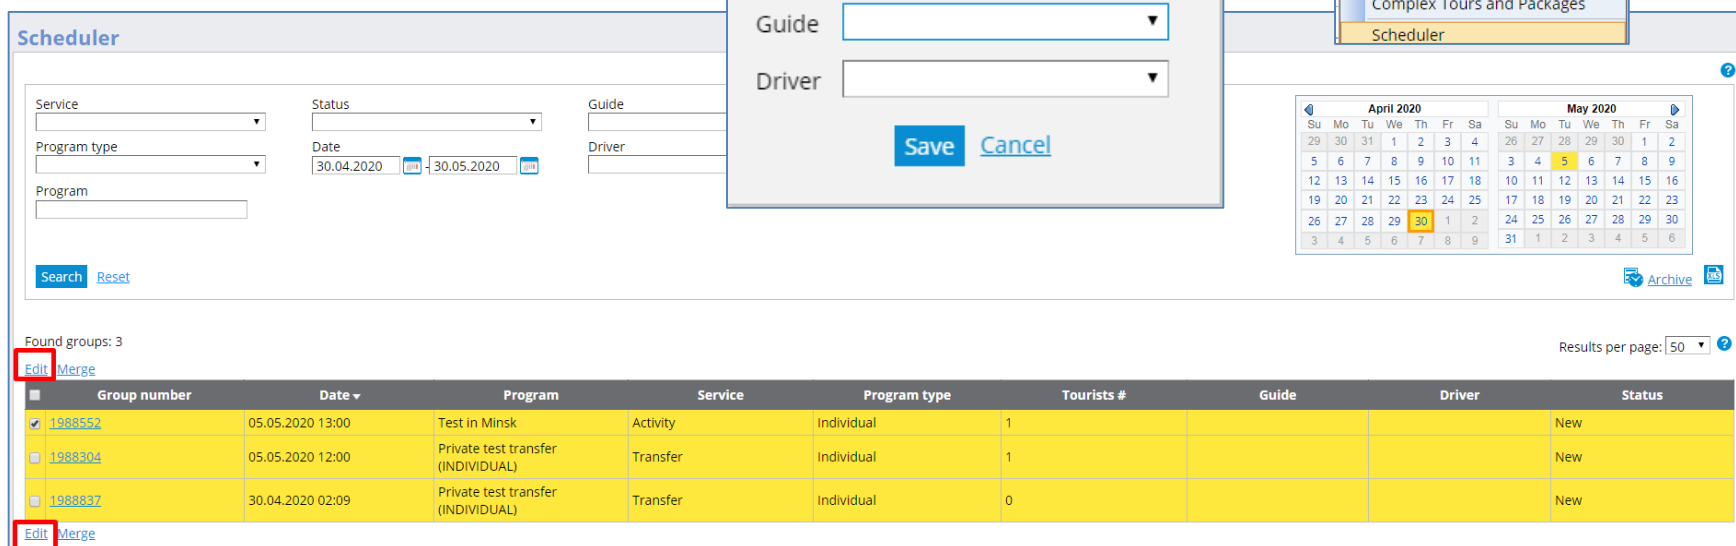

Note: in order to connect a new version of website for activities, please contact GP technical support or your account manager

2. Enhancements in Existing Modules

Release 8.1 provides the possibility to edit transfer groups so that you can easily change the info for several transfer groups at a time.

Access:

✓ Self-operated products >> Scheduler >> Edit

The screenshot displays the 'Scheduler' interface. A modal window titled 'Change selected group' is open, allowing editing of a selected group's status, guide, and driver. Below the modal, the main interface shows search filters and a list of found groups. A calendar widget is visible on the right side of the interface.

The parameter “otherAirportCode” in POST /prepareBookTransfer has become optional for self-operated transfers in Release 8.1.

Now users are able to ignore the field and do not fill in airports of departure or arrival while booking a transfer from the airport or to the airport.

POST /prepareBookTransfer Prepare book for trans

Implementation Notes

With this method you can select an offer and specify tourists' details. The method is the first step of the booking process. Note that system supports 2-step bookings - initiation and confirmation. This allows users to check offer availability, prices and return updated values before booking.

TransferLocation may be one of the follow format:

- address {"type": "address", "address": "", "postalCode": ""} postalCode is mandatory for external transfers
- airport {"type": "airport", "flightNumber": "", "otherAirportCode": "", "dateTime": "YYYY-MM-DDThh:mm"} all fields are mandatory excluding "otherAirportCode"
- hotel {"type": "hotel", "hotelCode": "", "hotelName": ""}
- train {"type": "train", "trainNumber": "", "cityId": "", "dateTime": "YYYY-MM-DDThh:mm"} trainNumber and dateTime are mandatory

The parameter “Commission” has been added for self-operated transfers, excursions, events in Release 8.1.
